John Matar Announces Candidacy for Benton County Justice of the Peace, District 13

Bentonville, AR – [October 20, 2025] – Northwest Arkansas native John Matar officially announces his candidacy for Benton County Justice of the Peace, District 13. Bringing a strong background of service, conservative principles, and a deep commitment to his community, Matar is ready to represent the residents of Benton County in District 13.

A combat veteran, Matar proudly served as an infantryman in the United States Army, upholding the values of duty, honor, and country. Following his military service, he continued his commitment to public safety with a short tenure as a law enforcement officer with the City of Springdale, Arkansas. He currently resides in Bentonville and utilizes his expertise working in logistics.

"My life has been dedicated to service, whether it was defending our nation or serving my local community," said Matar. "I am a man of strong faith, saved by Christ, and my convictions guide my belief in limited government, fiscal responsibility, and the sanctity of life. I look forward to taking that dedication and those conservative values to the Quorum Court to fight for the people of Benton County."

Matar stands firmly on conservative principles, advocating for smaller government and a commitment to fiscal restraint. A key priority of his campaign will be to work tirelessly to cut taxes for Benton County residents. He is a steadfast supporter of the working farmer—the backbone of the region—and is an active pro-life advocate.

John has been happily married to his wife, Adalisa Matar, for 10 years, and together they are raising their four children—three daughters and one son—in Bentonville.

"Benton County deserves a Justice of the Peace who understands the importance of conservative values, respects taxpayer dollars, and has the grit to get things done," Matar stated. "I have the experience, the values, and the commitment to be that representative. I humbly ask for the support and vote of District 13."
